

This form is required for students completing a graduate certificate or a master's degree that does not require a master's paper or thesis be submitted to the Graduate School.

- Submit this form on or before the last day of the semester in which you will complete your credential requirements. Please consult the Pathway to Degree completion page for details. If received after the deadline your credential will post for the following semester.
- Students completing a degree will be billed for the $25 processing fee in Campus Connection. This fee must be paid before the student's transcript and diploma will be released.
- Students earning a graduate certificate are not charged this fee.
